Frederick E. Mansfield

Mayor 1900–1901

Born: May 25, 1864
Oak Creek (South Milwaukee)

Died: May 20, 1932
Los Angeles, California)

Spouse: Evelyn Thelen

Father: Farrier Young Mansfield (1814-1890)

Mother: Electa Rawson (1823-1906)

Electa Rawson was a descendant of Moses Rawson (1753-1833). In 1777, Moses Rawson was a corporal in the 6th Company Colonel James Wesson's regiment. (North American Histories – Daughters of the American Revolution Lineage.)

Mansfield was one the signers of the original articles of incorporation of South Milwaukee, and was first Village President (elected December 3, 1892).

The 1900 census shows his occupational as real estate.

Mansfield was the South Milwaukee only mayor to be impeached: "This resulted from a dispute between the mayor and common council over the purchase of the electric light plant and the mayor's refusal to carry out the orders of the council. The impeachment fight was carried on in circuit court until April 1900, and was only decided on the day before J. M. Millman was elected mayor to succeed Mansfield."

Charles Franke

Mayor 1902–1908, 1910–1916 & 1924–1928

Born: August 22, 1864
Kassel, Germany

Died: June 10, 1938
South Milwaukee

Buried: Forest Hill Memorial Park

Spouse: Etta Franke

Charles Franke arrived in the United States on July 6, 1881, with his father at age 17, and settled near Baraboo, Wisconsin.

Occupations: 1893–1906 shoe sales and repair store; 1906–1919 hotel and tavern; 1919–1928 drug store. After that and until the date of his death he was employed at Bucyrus-Erie.

In the early years, he worked on the farm and at the shoe trade. He moved to Milwaukee in 1887, and worked at Atkins West & Company for 5 years. He moved to South Milwaukee in 1892, and assisted in organizing the village.

In South Milwaukee, he engaged in the shoe business for 14 years. He then disposed of his store and turned his attention to the hotel business. He was the proprietor of Hotel Blatz. On May 1, 1920, he established a drug store.

He was a member of the South Milwaukee Fire Department for 13 years and for 3 of those years was its chief. He served one term as an alderperson from 1901 to 1903.

One of his biographers said, "His advent into municipal politics was as spectacular as it was sudden. He came prominently into the limelight during the Mansfield trial in 1901, by reason of his powerful opposition to the fifty-year franchise given to the electric railroad."
